Jim Pepper Native Arts Festival Vendor Application

Saturday, September 24, 2016 Parkrose High School Field

Submit completed application and fee to JPNAF Vendor Coordinator, 1865 NE 129th Place, Portland, OR 97230 by September 10th. Make checks payable to the Jim Pepper Native Arts Festival.

Please read before filling out:

As part of a larger Native art and music festival in the name of Jim Pepper (Kaw, Creek) this event provides a forum for Native people of the Americas to display and sell their authentically-made Native creations, both traditional and contemporary. The Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990 applies. No secondhand or costume jewelry, videos or carnival-like products are allowed at this event and no sacred items may be sold. Vendor Coordinators reserve the right to deny applications that do not align with the goals of this festival or violate the terms of this application, as well as to remove any offensive items.

The Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990 (P.L. 101-644) is a truth-in-advertising law that prohibits misrepresentation in marketing of Indian arts and crafts products within the United States. It is illegal to offer or display for sale, or sell any art or craft product in a manner that falsely suggests it is Indian produced, an Indian product, or the product of a particular Indian or Indian Tribe or Indian arts and crafts organization, resident within the United States. For a first time violation of the Act, an individual can face civil or criminal penalties up to a $250,000 fine or a 5-year prison term, or both. If a business violates the Act, it can face civil penalties or can be prosecuted and fined up to $1,000,000.
